
MASE MEBANE & BRIGGS

LAUREN LEVITT

Lauren Levitt is an associate attorney at Mase, Mebane & Briggs focusing her practice on admiralty and maritime defense, personal injury, and general civil litigation matters.

Ms. Levitt earned her Bachelor of Arts degree from Emory University, focusing her studies in Political Science and Economics. She then earned her Juris Doctorate from the University of Florida Levin College of Law. During law school, Ms. Levitt worked at the Virgil Hawkins Civil Clinic, where she represented clients in family law matters, and sat first chair at trial as a Certified Legal Intern. Prior to joining Mase, Mebane & Briggs, Ms. Levitt worked at a national law firm specializing in employment law and medical malpractice defense. To give back to the local community, Ms. Levitt works as a Guardian ad Litem, representing children placed in the dependency system due to abandonment, abuse or neglect.

Ms. Levitt is a member of The Florida Bar and the Young Lawyers Division of the Florida Bar. She is admitted to practice in all Florida State Courts and the United States District Court for the Southern District of Florida.
